Tribute to Carlyne Taplin

There will be many of you here reading this who know Carlyne, she was a devoted mother and foster mum to many children in need of a family home. Carlyne always put others before herself, her selfless kind nature knew no bounds.

Carlyne was passionate about the New Forest and keeping the old bloodlines going. She has been to Beaulieu Road Sales since she was a young girl (over 60 years) rarely missing one.

Unfortunately, Carlyne died from Cancer earlier this year. In memory of Carlyne several lots in this catalogue have been donated by local commoners. All of the proceeds raised today will go directly to the amazing Oakhaven Hospice, who cared for Carlyne and her family in her final weeks.

Carlyne's family would like to thank everyone who has contributed and made this fund raising event happen.

Grace is a homebred pony who is unfortunately not big enough for her owner. Her training started later in life, with covid and an elderly owner slowing up her training. She is a slow learner, she is good to long rein having been long reined on the road and side lined with a pair. She has been ridden in the school. Grace is not shod and will need a patient farrier to trim her feet. She has a pleasant nature but needs more training with a patient owner.
